MEN'S PLEDGE TO END VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN

AI's Photo | 2024.12.02 09:04

NDC conducted the Men's Pledge to End Violence Against Women, where male employees expressed their commitment to promote respect, equality, and nonviolence. Through the pledge, participants affirmed their role in preventing gender-based violence and supporting the objectives of the 18-Day Campaign to End Violence Against Women.

Film Showing: “Believe Me: The Abduction of Lisa McVey”

As part of the 18-Day Campaign to End Violence Against Women, NDC facilitated a film showing of Believe Me: The Abduction of Lisa McVey. The film highlights the realities of gender-based violence and the challenges faced by survivors in seeking justice. It emphasizes the importance of believing survivors, providing compassionate support, and holding perpetrators accountable, reinforcing the campaign's advocacy to end violence against women.
